

We remember those who have shown us your love, whose faces reflect your image, whose actions have given us a glimpse of your work among us. We lift up those who have shown forgiveness, whose words have encouraged, whose strength has made us stronger, whose service has inspired us to serve others ...

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
God's steadfast love endures forever.

We celebrate the events in our lives and in our world in which justice has conquered oppression, goodness has defeated evil, love has won over hate. Giving thanks for all of the ways your divine hand moves among us, ruling over rulers, bringing peace and restoring creation, we join our voices with the faithful throughout the centuries ...

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
God's steadfast love endures forever.

Gracious God, we know that your gifts are not yet complete, that many of us still feel your steadfast love is distant. Grant us the wisdom to know that our best appreciation for your gifts comes in sharing them with others, that your love is to be shared acted out, your justice meant to be lived. As we grow in our thanksgiving, may we come to live the prayer our Lord taught ...

*Unison Prayer of the Day

Awesome God, we come to You with thanksgiving and joy.
We come to praise Your name, not because "it's the thing to do," but because we simply cannot keep quiet. In spite of our faltering faith, You continue to stick with us. Your love never abandons us, even in the darkest of times. You fill our lives with the wonders of Your boundless mercy. How can we keep from singing Your praise and shouting with joy? Alleluia, amen!

Scripture Lesson

Luke 17:11-19

<sup>11</sup> As Jesus continued on toward Jerusalem, he reached the border between Galilee and Samaria. <sup>12</sup> As he entered a village there, ten men with leprosy stood at a distance, <sup>13</sup> crying out, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

<sup>14</sup> He looked at them and said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were cleansed of their leprosy.

<sup>15</sup> One of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back to Jesus, shouting, "Praise God!" <sup>16</sup> He fell to the ground at Jesus' feet, thanking him for what he had done. This man was a Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus asked, "Didn't I heal ten men? Where are the other nine?" <sup>18</sup> Has no one returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?" <sup>19</sup> And Jesus said to the man, "Stand up and go. Your faith has healed you." New Living Translation (NLT)
