Isaac went out
in the evening
to walk in the field;
and looking up, he saw camels coming.

Genesis 24:63, NRSV

Come, let us worship God!

Prelude

Words of Welcome

Musical Call to Worship

A Call to Worship for Independence Day

We came from all places and all peoples to gather here today.

Some of us traveled across the ice, others came later in boats, still others of us waded rivers or arrived in planes.

We found a land blessed.

Blessed with mountains and valleys, rivers and oceans, fertile earth, wonderful woods, and promising cities.

Here, a dream was born.

A dream of freedom from all oppression,

A dream of hope for our children,

A dream of people in community under God.

We have turned to nations and peoples who gave us birth:

Send us the voiceless.

Send us the fearful.

Send us the oppressed.

Opening Hymn

”America, the Beautiful”

Opening Prayer

Almighty God, You rule all the peoples of the earth.

Inspire the minds of all women and men to whom YOU have committed the responsibility of government and leadership in the nations of the world. Give to them the vision of truth and justice, that by their counsel all nations and peoples may work together. Give to the people of our country zeal for justice and strength of forbearance, that we may use our liberty in accordance with Your gracious will. Forgive our shortcomings as a nation; purify our hearts to see and love the truth. We pray all these things through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Blessing

May we leave this place renewed and empowered, following God’s call to be servants in Christ’s name.

May we have faith and courage like Rebekah,
leaving behind our old lives to follow the will of God!
