Lead Me, Guide Me

Lead me, O LORD, won't You lead me.

I am tired and I need Thy strength and power
To guide me over my darkest hour.
Lord, just open my eyes that I may see

Lead me, O Lord, won't You lead me.

Lead me, guide me, along the way
For if You lead me, I cannot stray
Lord, just open my eyes that I may see.

I am lost if You take Your hand from me
I am blind without thy light to see
Lord, just let me Thy servant be

Lead me, O Lord, won't You lead me.

Lead me, guide me, along the way
For if You lead me, I cannot stray
Lord, just open my eyes that I may see.

Lead me, O Lord, won't You lead me.
Lead me, O Lord, won't You lead me.

Blest Be the Tie That Binds

Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love.
The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne, we pour our ardent prayers.
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one our comfort and our cares.

We share our mutual woes, our mutual burdens bear and often for each other flows a sympathizing tear

When we asunder part, it gives us inward pain.
But we shall still be joined in heart and hope to meet again.

My Life Is in You, Lord

My life is in You, Lord; my strength is in you Lord, my hope is in you, my life is in You, Lord.

(4X)

I will praise you with all of my life I will praise you with all of my strength
With all of my life with all of my strength
All of my hope is in you.

My life is in You, Lord; my strength is in you Lord, my hope is in you, Lord (2X)

I will praise you with all of my life; I will praise you with all of my strength
With all of my life, with all of my strength,
All of my hope is in you.

My life is in You, Lord; my strength is in you lord, my hope is in you, Lord (2X) in you, it's in you; in you it's in you.

Genesis 25:19-34

¹⁹ This is the account of the family of Isaac, the son of Abraham.

²⁰ When Isaac was forty years old, he married Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan-aram and the sister of Laban the Aramean.

²¹ Isaac pleaded with the LORD on behalf of his wife, because she was unable to have children. The LORD answered Isaac's prayer, and Rebekah became pregnant with twins. ²² But the two children struggled with each other in her womb. So she went to ask the LORD about it. "Why is this happening to me?" she asked.

²³ And the LORD told her, "The sons in your womb will become two nations. From the very beginning, the two nations will be rivals. One nation will be stronger than the other; and your older son will serve your younger son."

²⁴ And when the time came to give birth, Rebekah discovered that she did indeed have twins! ²⁵ The first one was very red at birth and covered with thick hair like a fur coat. So they named him Esau. ²⁶ Then the other twin was born with his hand grasping Esau's heel. So they named him Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when the twins were born.

²⁷ As the boys grew up, Esau became a skillful hunter. He was an outdoorsman, but Jacob had a quiet temperament, preferring to stay at home. ²⁸ Isaac loved Esau because he enjoyed eating the wild game Esau brought home, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

²⁹ One day when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau arrived home from the wilderness exhausted and hungry. ³⁰ Esau said to Jacob, "I'm starved! Give me some of that red stew!" (This is how Esau got his other name, Edom, which means "red.")

³¹ "All right," Jacob replied, "but trade me your rights as the firstborn son."

³² "Look, I'm dying of starvation!" said Esau. "What good is my birthright to me now?"

³³ But Jacob said, "First you must swear that your birthright is mine." So Esau swore an oath, thereby selling all his rights as the firstborn to his brother, Jacob.

³⁴ Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and lentil stew. Esau ate the meal, then got up and left. He showed contempt for his rights as the firstborn. New Living Translation (NLT)
