The Prelude

*Call to Worship

Come and worship the God who saves us!

In God alone do we find safety.

Come to the rock that stands forever.

In God's shadow we rest secure.

Hope in the God of all eternity.

In God Eternal is our hope and our trust.

*Opening Hymn

"Great Is Thy Faithfulness"

No. 140

*Opening Prayer

Happy are we whose help is in the God of the prophet Jeremiah, and whose hope is in the God whose name tongues can utter,

who made star systems and pulsars,

who made all the heavens above us in the night sky,

and the one earth on which we live.

Our one Lord watches over us,

Our one Lord opens the eyes of faith,

Our one Lord upholds the disposed,

Our one Lord is always with us.

God is here now — be grateful, be reverent, be joyous.

Amen.

—Based on Psalm 146.

Scripture Lesson

Jeremiah 32:1-3a, 6-15

32 The following message came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of the reign of Zedekiah, king of Judah. This was also the eighteenth year of the reign of King Nebuchadnezzar. ² Jerusalem was then under siege from the Babylonian army, and Jeremiah was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard in the royal palace.

³ King Zedekiah had put him there, asking why he kept giving this prophecy:

⁶ At that time the LORD sent me a message. He said, ⁷ "Your cousin Hanamel son of Shallum will come and say to you, 'Buy my field at Anathoth. By law you have the right to buy it before it is offered to anyone else.'"

⁸ Then, just as the LORD had said he would, my cousin Hanamel came and visited me in the prison. He said, "Please buy my field at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. By law you have the right to buy it before it is offered to anyone else, so buy it for yourself." Then I knew that the message I had heard was from the LORD.

⁹ So I bought the field at Anathoth, paying Hanamel seventeen pieces of silver for it. ¹⁰ I signed and sealed the deed of purchase before witnesses, weighed out the silver, and paid him. ¹¹ Then I took the sealed deed and an unsealed copy of the deed, which contained the terms and conditions of the purchase, ¹² and I handed them to Baruch son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah. I did all this in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, the witnesses who had signed the deed, and all the men of Judah who were there in the courtyard of the guardhouse.

¹³ Then I said to Baruch as they all listened, ¹⁴ "This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Take both this sealed deed and the unsealed copy, and put them into a pottery jar to preserve them for a long time.' ¹⁵ For this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Someday people will again own property here in this land and will buy and sell houses and vineyards and fields.'" New Living Translation (NLT)

Closing Hymn “God Will Take Care of You” No. 130

Blessing

Even as we leave this place, we remain in the shelter of the Most High.

We will not fear the terrors of this world.

Even as we close this time of worship, we remain in the refuge of the Holy One.

We will to stray from God’s holy presence.

Even as we live our lives, we follow in the footsteps of Christ.

We will trust in God’s guidance and live in Christ’s love now and into the future.
