If I have a

mountains, but I have not

Words of Welcome

Musical Call to Worship

Call to Worship

based on 1 John 4:7-11

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God;

Everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

Whoever does not love does not know God.

For God is love.

Beloved, since God loved us so much,

We also ought to love one another.

“Love Divine, All Loves Excelling”

Opening Prayer

God above any other god:

We come to worship today to hear your good news,

to hear of faith, hope and love ringing out from your kingdom.

We know that doubt, fear and hatred can shake even the strongest.

Shape us into faithful hopeful people, fill us with your love that passes all understanding.

We pray this together in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

Prayers of the People

In a world that is so very much in need of the healing that You can bring, teach us, God,
to love one another.

When we are called to proclaim a gospel that can be both comforting and challenging, teach us, God,

to love one another.

When we want to discredit the message of others because it challenges us, teach us, God,
to love one another.

In seeking ways to alleviate hunger, poverty, sadness, loneliness, oppression, above all teach us, God,

to love one another.

In a world that is so very much in need of the healing that You can bring, teach us, God,
to love one another.

In our church and our community, help us find ways to use the gifts You have given to us, and to accept and celebrate the gifts of all ages: children, youth, adults, and elders. And above all, teach us, God, to love one another. Amen.
