So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow.

1 Corinthians 3:7, NIV

Welcome to worship.
May you find the presence of God wherever you are.

Call to Worship

Come from homes and work to praise God.
 Come from the rough places of life to worship God.
 Come remembering all we have received, to give thanks to God.
 Come into the fellowship of this church, to find a common purpose.

We are ready!
We will find friendship!
Our joy is great!
In Christ's community we are strong!

We invite your presence today, O God. We come to you, our God, and Creator, as children, as those growing in maturity, in whom You are at work, through Your Word and Spirit, to make us servants of Christ and vessels for Your service, created for Your glory. Amen.

Bible Reading

1 Corinthians 3:1-9

3 Dear brothers and sisters, when I was with you I couldn't talk to you as I would to spiritual people. I had to talk as though you belonged to this world or as though you were infants in Christ.

2 I had to feed you with milk, not with solid food, because you weren't ready for anything stronger. And you still aren't ready, 3 for you are still controlled by your sinful nature. You are jealous of one another and quarrel with each other. Doesn't that prove you are controlled by your sinful nature? Aren't you living like people of the world? 4 When one of you says, "I am a follower of Paul," and another says, "I follow Apollos," aren't you acting just like people of the world?

5 After all, who is Apollos? Who is Paul? We are only God's servants through whom you believed the Good News. Each of us did the work the Lord gave us. 6 I planted the seed in your hearts, and Apollos watered it, but it was God who made it grow. 7 It's not important who does the planting, or who does the watering. What's important is that God makes the seed grow. 8 The one who plants and the one who waters work together with the same purpose. And both will be rewarded for their own hard work. 9 For we are both God's workers. And you are God's field. You are God's building.

You have life choices before you, as you leave this time of worship.

We will choose the life that is joyful and fulfilling;

we will choose the life that goes beyond the well-known borders;

we will choose the life that seeks the way of reconciliation;

we will choose the life that contributes to community;

we will choose the life that shares with generosity;

we will choose the life that is lived as a disciple of Jesus Christ. Amen.
