Soon and Very Soon

Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King;
 soon and very soon, we are going to see the King;
 soon and very soon, we are going to see the King.
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah! We're going to see the King.

No more dying there, we are going to see the King;
 No more dying there, we are going to see the King;
 No more dying there, we are going to see the King;
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah! We're going to see the King.

No more crying there, we are going to see the King;
 No more crying there, we are going to see the King;
 No more crying there, we are going to see the King;
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah! We're going to see the King.

John 11:32-44

<sup>32</sup> Mary went to where Jesus was. Then as soon as she saw him, she knelt at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

<sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw that Mary and the people with her were crying, he was terribly upset <sup>34</sup> and asked, "Where have you put his body?"

They replied, "Lord, come and you will see."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus started crying, <sup>36</sup> and the people said, "See how much he loved Lazarus."

<sup>37</sup> Some of them said, "He gives sight to the blind. Why couldn't he have kept Lazarus from dying?"

<sup>38</sup> Jesus was still terribly upset. So he went to the tomb, which was a cave with a stone rolled against the entrance. <sup>39</sup> Then he told the people to roll the stone away. But Martha said, “Lord, you know that Lazarus has been dead four days, and there will be a bad smell.”

<sup>40</sup> Jesus replied, “Didn't I tell you that if you had faith, you would see the glory of God?”

<sup>41</sup> After the stone had been rolled aside, Jesus looked up toward heaven and prayed, “Father, I thank you for answering my prayer. <sup>42</sup> I know that you always answer my prayers. But I said this, so the people here would believe you sent me.”

<sup>43</sup> When Jesus had finished praying, he shouted, “Lazarus, come out!” <sup>44</sup> The man who had been dead came out. His hands and feet were wrapped with strips of burial cloth, and a cloth covered his face.

Jesus then told the people, “Untie him and let him go.” (CEV)

Isaiah 25:6-9

<sup>6</sup> On this mountain

the Lord All-Powerful will prepare for all nations
a feast of the finest foods.

Choice wines and the best meats
will be served.

<sup>7</sup> Here the Lord will strip away
the burial clothes
that cover the nations.

<sup>8</sup> The Lord All-Powerful will destroy the power of death and wipe away all tears.

No longer will his people
be insulted everywhere.

The Lord has spoken!

<sup>9</sup> At that time, people will say,
“The Lord has saved us!

Let's celebrate.

We waited and hoped—now our God is here.”

Song of Thanksgiving – “Give Thanks” Black #2036

Give thanks with a grateful heart, give thanks to the holy One.
Give thanks, because He’s given Jesus Christ, His Son.
Give thanks with a grateful heart, give thanks to the holy One.
Give thanks, because He’s given Jesus Christ, His Son.

And now, let the weak say, “I am strong;”
Let the poor say, “I am rich because of what the LORD has done for us.”
And now, let the weak say, “I am strong,”
Let the poor say, “I am rich because of what the LORD has done for us.”

Give thanks. Give thanks.

This Is a Day of New Beginnings

This is a day of new beginnings, time to remember and move on, time to believe what love is bringing, laying to rest the pain that’s gone.

For by the life and death of Jesus, God’s mighty Spirit, now as then, can make for us a world of difference, as faith and hope are born again.

Then let us, with the Spirit’s daring, step from the past and leave behind our disappointment, guilt, and grieving, seeking new paths, and sure to find.

Christ is alive, and goes before us to show and share what love can do.
This is a day of new beginnings; our God is making all things new.

In faith we’ll gather round the table to taste and share what love can do.
This is a day of new beginnings; our God is making all things new.
