God of the Ages

God of the ages, whose almighty hand
leads forth in beauty all the starry band
of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
our grateful songs before thy throne arise.

Thy love divine hath led us in the past;
in this free land with thee our lot is cast;
be thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
thy word our law, thy paths our chosen way.

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
be thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
thy true religion in our hearts increase;
thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh thy people on their toilsome way,
lead us from night to never-ending day;
fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
and glory, laud, and praise be ever thine.

Song of Thanksgiving

Give thanks with a grateful heart, give thanks to the Holy One, give thanks because he's given Jesus Christ his Son. (Repeat)

And now let the weak say, "I am strong".
let the poor say, "I am rich
because of what the Lord has done for us." (Repeat)

Give thanks! Give thanks!
Repeat

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. <sup>28</sup> They posed this question: “Teacher, Moses gave us a law that if a man dies, leaving a wife but no children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother’s name. <sup>29</sup> Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children. <sup>30</sup> So the second brother married the widow, but he also died. <sup>31</sup> Then the third brother married her. This continued with all seven of them, who died without children. <sup>32</sup> Finally, the woman also died. <sup>33</sup> So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her!”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus replied, “Marriage is for people here on earth. <sup>35</sup> But in the age to come, those worthy of being raised from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage. <sup>36</sup> And they will never die again. In this respect they will be like angels. They are children of God and children of the resurrection.

<sup>37</sup> “But now, as to whether the dead will be raised—even Moses proved this when he wrote about the burning bush. Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, he referred to the Lord as ‘the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ <sup>38</sup> So he is the God of the living, not the dead, for they are all alive to him.” New Living Translation (NLT)

Bible Reading

Haggai 1:15b-2:9

2 on October 17 of that same year, the LORD sent another message through the prophet Haggai. <sup>2</sup> “Say this to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of God’s people there in the land: <sup>3</sup> ‘Does anyone remember this house—this Temple—in its former splendor? How, in comparison, does it look to you now? It must seem like nothing at all! <sup>4</sup> But now the LORD says: Be strong, Zerubbabel. Be strong, Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people still left in the land. And now get to work, for I am with you, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>5</sup> My Spirit remains among you, just as I promised when you came out of Egypt. So do not be afraid.’

<sup>6</sup> “For this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: In just a little while I will again shake the heavens and the earth, the oceans and the dry land. <sup>7</sup> I will shake all the nations, and the treasures of all the nations will be brought to this Temple. I will fill this place with glory, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>8</sup> The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>9</sup> The future glory of this Temple will be greater than its past glory, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. And in this place I will bring peace. I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, have spoken!” New Living Translation (NLT)
